

Discover Your Spiritual Gifts

"You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart." — Jeremiah 29:13

Spiritual gifts are abilities the Holy Spirit gives believers to serve the church (1 Corinthians 12:4-7). Reflect on the questions below to start identifying yours.

- What do other believers regularly affirm or thank you for?
- What kind of serving energizes you rather than draining you?
- When you read Romans 12:6-8 and 1 Corinthians 12:8-10, which gifts sound most like you (teaching, mercy, leadership, giving, encouragement, service, etc.)?
- What need have you noticed in your church that you feel drawn to help meet?

Next step: Ask a pastor or small group leader what gifts they see in you — others often notice gifts before we do ourselves.
